Hijab to anti-conversion: New govt to After entry worries, online review contentious K'taka decisions

Bengaluru Karnataka will review a string of controversial decisions taken by the previous government such as an anti-conversion law. the hijab ban in educational institutions, and tweaks in textbooks – and even possibly reverse some of them, senior functionaries in the new regime have indicated.

On Wednesday, state minister Priyank Kharge said that many orders and laws enforced by the previous government were 'against the interest of the state", a day after chief minister Siddaramaiah said his government will come down heavily on incidents of moral policing and deputy CM DK Shiyakumar warned that the state police will be "de-saffronised".

Together, their statements hinted that the new Congress administration in the state was looking at a so-called de-saffronisation drive, aimed at rolling back some of the previous Bharativa Janata Party (BJP) government's communally polarising decisions that stoked controversy and a raft of court cases

Kharge said many orders and laws enforced under the previous BJP regime such as school textbook revisions and anti-conversion laws were against state interest and will be revised or withdrawn by the new Congress government after reviewing them.

"The previous government

(birth anniversary of prominent figures) and left out others. Not only jayanti, their orders, whether it is regarding textbooks, anti-cow slaughter, anti-conversion bills (laws), all of them will be revised," Kharge said.

Among the most controversial decisions by the previous government was restrictions on wearing hijab in classrooms that came into effect last year and prompted some students to approach the Supreme Court, which will set up a larger bench to hear the case after a two-judge bench delivered a split

"...Any executive order that goes against the image of Karnataka, that goes against getting investment or creating employment, will be reviewed and rejected, if necessary. It does not matter if it is anticonversion bill, the cow slaughter bill, or the hijab thing — everything will be looked at from the economic perspective and progressive point of view and then we will take a call," he told news channel India Today

Amid rising demands for a review of the hijab restrictions. senior Congress lawmaker NA Haris called the decision unconstitutional on Wednesday.

When asked about the demand. senior minister G Parameswara said: "We will see in future what best we can do. Right now, we have to fulfil the five guarantees we made to the people of Karna-

CM Siddaramaiah, his deputy DK Shivakumar with other Congress MLAs in Bengaluru.

The BJP lashed out at the Congress, with former chief minister Basavaraj Bommai saying The CM-DCM duo has decided to implement their agenda of appeasement politics and as part of it," Bommai alleged.

The Congress displaced the BJP in the recently concluded assembly elections earlier this month.

On Tuesday at a press conference. Siddaramaiah warned against moral policing. "No more moral policing. We will put an end to this," he told reporters. The CM also warned the police brass that they would be held responsible if the law-and-order situation deteri-

In the same press conference, Shivakumar said the police will have to be de-saffronised "We know how [some] police officers came to the police station wearing saffron shawls. If it was patriotism. then they should have come to work wearing the national flag. We will not allow saffronisation of the police department," Shivakumar said

He stood by his statement on Wednesday and said he was referring to how police personnel in some places wore saffron instead of their uniform to pose for photos.

Bommai replaced former CM Yediyurappa in 2021 and quickly endorsed a raft of controversial decisions.

In 2022, his government pushed through an anti-conversion bill that the government said was needed to check forced conversions but the opposition said was aimed at targeting Christians and Muslims. In February 2022, the administration issued an order effectively barring hijabs in schools and colleges. In December 2022, senior ministers backed campaigns against halal meat and the use of loudspeakers in mosques during morning prayers or azaan. And on several occasions in 2022 the BJP government defended the actions of right-wing groups blocking Muslims from setting up shops in temples and taking part in religious fairs, going against decades of established tra-

In its successful poll campaign. the Congress accused the BJP of focussing on a polarising agenda rather than governance, and assured the people of reviewing controversial decisions to "de-saffronise" the state.

Kharge said that said the new government will withdraw all laws and orders that hamper the state's economic progress and prosperity and go against the interests of Kannadigas. "All those bills (laws) and orders that hamper the economic progress of Karnataka, its prosperity, and affect Kannadigas, will be withdrawn. Making Karnataka once again the number one is our intention, and we will take steps in that direction," added Kharge.

Bommai said Karnataka Police was never saffron used. "The Karnataka Police have a good name in the entire country and the cops have never done saffronisation. The duo has decided to implement their agenda and as part of it, they have brought down the morale of the police department. The Congress has started its appeasement politics from day one of assuming power in the state," he alleged.

Former home minister and BJP lawmaker Araga Jnanendra accused Shivakumar and Siddaramaiah of trying to "Congress-ise" the police force. "Our policing sys tem is very good. The police acts as per law. They don't discriminate on the basis of religion," he said.

BJP brass steps in to resolve rift between leaders in Tripura unit

Privanka Deb Barman and Smriti Kak Ramachandran

AGARTALA/NEW DELHI: The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) central leadership has stepped in to diffuse tension in the party's Tripura unit which became conspicuous over the last week. with senior leader Biplab Deb rushing to Delhi while a group of party workers raising complaints against chief minister Manik Saha over a host of issues, people familiar with the matter said.

There has been a visible discomfort between leaders in the state, but matters came to a head in the past few weeks after some BJP leaders complained that Saha has sidelined senior leaders who have been with the party for long, a party functionary said, requesting anonymity.

The leader said the central leadership has been apprised of the developments in the state and BJP national general secretary (organisation) BL Santhosh and in-charge of the northeast Sambit Patra have been mandated to resolve the tussle. The BJP retained power in the state earlier this year, winning 32 of the 60 assembly seats.

"People who have been with the sangathan (organisation) for years and have fought the communists are being sidelined. Even senior leaders like former CM Deb. Union minister Pratima Bhoumik and state unit president Rajib Bhattacharva have had problems with the way the CM has been functioning," the leader said. "Recently, security personnel deputed for Bhatta charva's safety was removed without prior information...'

The state government's lack of assistance to Deb for organising a health camp has exacerbated the strain between the leaders said the functionary.
Deb, now a Rajya Sabha member, also criticised the state leadership for its functioning. "The BJP is a disciplined party. We shall run the party under the leadership of Modiji and Amit Shah. But a section of outsiders is influencing the party...," Deb told reporters on Sunday.

Political experts said the discomfort may harm the BJP's prospect in the Lok Sabha polls. "It's the power game that created differences within the BJP. Though they managed to retain power for the second time, their party organisation is not strong. The differences within the BJP will not only affect the party, but also impact the polls," said political writer S Bhattacharya.
